President's Message

I can't believe it is almost Memorial day and the start of summer. I myself am not looking forward to the heat, but that is Redding in the summer. Lots of air conditioning and working inside leads to tons of finished projects.

Looking forward to Rob's presentation and workshop. I unfortunately will not be at the meeting, but will be at the workshop. 8th grade graduation for my oldest grandson takes priority over the meeting - but Vicki will do a wonderful job. Remember that the meeting order will be slightly different as Rob wants to go last in the order. Pay close attention as all the regular items will take place prior to his presentation.

I want to stress to all that our philanthropic quilts are NOT given to anyone that wishes to sell them. I heard that several members saw some for sale this past weekend at a churches garage sale. They were told by a church member that we had given them the quilts to sell. That is not and will never be our philosophy.

Enjoy, happy quilting and have a safe Memorial Day! Barb Helwig

Vice President's Message

With our 2018 Quilt Show in the books I think we can say it was an amazing success. Thank you to all of our members who helped with all the various areas of the show. The quality of our members quilts continues to excite and challenge me.

Speaking of challenges, I have an idea! We are almost halfway through the year and soon everyone will start planning for the holidays. I want to do a Holiday Wallhanging Challenge. The details will be released and sign-ups started at our June meeting.

Of course there are always the big five; Easter, July 4th, Halloween, Thanksgiving and Christmas. But there are lesser celebrated holidays as well; Arbor day, Memorial day, Mothers or Fathers day, Groundhog day, etc. You can think outside the box as well, imagine a wallhanging for National Doughnut day or National Naked Gardening day. Let your imagination and creativity run wild.

Our speaker for June, Rob Appell will be doing a workshop in Red Bluff during the day on Tuesday June 5th, so unfortunately he won't be available to go to dinner before our guild meeting.

Don't forget the Saturday Sew-cial on May 19. Bring a fat quarter of your favorite fabric and I will show you how to turn it into a tissue box cover. This project is quick, easy and makes a great gift.

I need quilts for the rest of the year. Two small, one lap, and two large (twin to queen) each month. They hang for one month. Please sign up to share your beautiful quilts at the venues. You can reach me at [redacted]. I usually collect them at the monthly meeting and hang them the next day. I need the three small ones for March and all sizes for the rest of the year. Thank you to all who help with this.

A big thank you to my wonderful helpers. This program could have not been successful without the help from Cheryl Courtney, Marion Collins, Sally Paoli, Marilyn O'Hare, and Judy Jaegel. These ladies have encouraged the girls, ripped seams, ironed and enjoyed the the time together. The school has be easy to work with and welcoming to all of us. The young sewers have made a lap size quilt, pillow case, an apron for thereselfs. To help the guild the made the cloth bags for One Safe Place. We are all proud of their hard work. Thank you

Philanthropic Quilts

We want to thank all the ladies who attended our May Sew-In and spent some time piecing together tops from the mound of strips that we provided. About 50 people were present to enjoy the camaraderie of both old and new friends. The Nacho Bar was apparently a success as well judging from the empty bowls and dishes. We can't wait to see all of the quilts that were made from the strips and panels and are sure that the lucky recipients will enjoy them as well.

We have heard the many positive comments that you have been saying about the choice of fabrics and kits that we are putting together and we thank you. But in order to keep providing fun projects we need to replenish our fabric supply with good quality materials. So, at the June meeting we will be having a Fabric Shower! We are in need of larger pieces for backing that will complement the quilt tops and we also need some newer fabrics for the tops as well. So, for every yard of fabric you bring in you will get a raffle ticket and be entered into a drawing for great prizes. Thank you all for your help. Dorinda, Patti, & Blossom

To all of the members...

It has come to our attention that at a recent church yard sale one of our members spotted several quilts for sale. When she asked where they came from she was told that they were given to the church by the Redding Quilters' Sew-Ciety to sell.

We want you to know that we DO NOT and have NEVER given any of the philanthropic quilts to anyone or any organization for selling purposes. The wonderful quilts are given as gifts to various places such as Mercy Outpatient Chemo, Mercy Pediatrics, One Safe Place and CPS. We have also given quilts to the Veteran's Home. We are open to suggestions for other outlets. This erroneous information is distressing to us and we want to make it clear that the Philanthropic quilts are only given as gifts. Blossom, Dorinda, & Patti

2018 HERstory Quilt Challenge

We would like to thank the 31 quilters who persevered and completed 30 amazing quilts for this year's HER-story Quilt Challenge. The exhibit looked wonderful at our quilt show. Also many thanks to those of you who spoke about your notable American woman and provided some interesting information to the people who came to listen to the presentations given seven times during the show. We received many favorable comments from the viewers and the people who attended the oral herstory presentations. These were the winners of the voting conducted by our members at the March meeting:

Members' Favorite

Julia Child by Lynn Smith

Best Use of Embellishments

Ginger Rogers by Ellen Abshier

Most Realistic (Tie)

Dorothea Lang by Patti Aberg and Mary Tyler Moore by Judy Sturgeon

Best Use of Theme (Three-Way Tie)

Amelia Earhart by Kimberley Heaps Mary Fields by Cassie Zucco and
Susan B. Anthony by Cris Rohn Hartman

Many thanks to all who helped with set-up, take-down, white glove, presentations, and during this entire process. Thank you for making this Challenge such a success!

2018 Challenge Coordinators

Quilting is the answer. I don't care what the question is.

Dear 2018 HERstory Challenge Quilters,

I just wanted to take this opportunity to say thank you to all of you who participated in the 2018 HERstory Challenge, and to let you know how proud of each of you I am for persevering and making the beautiful quilts that you created. This was definitely a more difficult challenge than some of the previous ones have been. Thank you to those who helped with set-up, take down, white gloves, and a special thanks to those who participated in presenting the oral histories during the quilt show. We received so many positive comments about the quilts and the interesting presentations... so thanks so very much for all of your efforts.

As a thank you, I've created this video for you to remind you of our Challenge. Turn up your music and enjoy!

Cris

Thank you to all of the ladies who loaned props and helped with the set up and take down. Also thank you to all of the ladies who brought their feather-weight machines and demo'd them. Special thanks to Chris Penna, who did a great demo on thread painting and Cassie Zucco & Kim Heaps who did a great job doing hand quilting demonstrations.

Thanks Again!
