President's Message

Is everyone enjoying the cooler nights? Just wish the daytime was cooler. I hope everyone has their challenge quilts done. Can't wait to see what holidays are depicted in fabric. The Carr Fire project continues to grow by leaps and bounds. Check out the submission later in the newsletter. There are still many ways to support the project. Please consider lending your assistance. We continue to receive donations from many organizations. I have nicknamed Dorinda's house "The Chaotic Quilters."

As the year draws to a close, election time is upon us. You should receive your ballot in the mail. Please either mail them back or return them at the November meeting. Please remember, you are not allowed to pick up ballots at the meeting. You must return the one that was mailed to you. There are still some side table committee positions open. If you are interested, please see me for a chance to serve your guild.

At the November meeting, we will have the names of children for our annual Christmas Giving Tree Project. You are not restricted to only one name. We are given the child's first name, size of clothing, favorite toys, and favorite colors. Please bring the items to the December meeting, wrapped and ready for giving. This is a fun project, and I hope you consider giving to someone less fortunate than yourself.

Barb Helwig

Vice President's Message

"Fall" or "Autumn," whichever word you use to describe this time of year, it's always my favorite season. I love the cooler weather and watching through the picture window of my sewing room as the leaves fall. I have my sewing machine right in front of the window.

I hope all the quilters who signed up for the Holiday Wall Hanging Challenge have found their inspiration and are nearing completion of their projects. We will be seeing all of their beautiful and creative work at the November meeting. You will be voting for your favorite. Also, start planning your Christmas tablescapes as we will be signing up for our December party at this meeting.

Don't forget the Saturday Sew-cial on November 17th at the Sewing Room. I have quilt kits cut out and ready to sew. Just bring your machine and go to work on Carr Fire quilts. Easy peasy! Give me a call if you plan to come so I will have enough kits cut for everyone. I hope to see you there.

Vicki Bertucci, Vice President

Dollar Blocks

Royal Rose Bud was a hit. We sold all 48 blocks in record time. There were 30 Disappearing Nine-Patch turned in. Our winners were Rose Leonard & Kaye Stoner. Thanks Quilters, it's been a great year.

Education

Thank you to all who donated 5½-inch strips at this last meeting. I now have 11 more than I did last month. The 2½-inch strips are coming in also. I think I have more than 125. The variety of prints and colors are a nice addition. We still need more 5½-inch strips, one from each member would be so helpful. We can always use more sewing helpers. If you feel this is something you can do, we welcome the help. Sewing starts January 2019 at Buckeye School. We meet on Wednesdays 3PM to 5PM. The only thing you need to bring is a willing heart & a desire to start the education of new quilters. Please call Gayle at . Leave a message if I don't answer. Thank you for your giving. Happy Thanksgiving.

Library

The summer is over, and Fall is flying by. It's hard to believe it's November already and the holidays are almost here. We have added a lot of books this last month thanks in part to Chris Penna. She has generously donated quite a few Art Quilt and more to the Library. If you are into art quilts and threadplay, make sure you check them out. Thank You Chris for all the wonderful books. Our raffle book for this month is Wiggles & Waves Free-Form Curves by Karen Eckmeier. This book has various table runner, wall hanging, and banner patterns. If you ever wanted to try curve piecing or free-form shapes, this is the book for you. It's full of small simple patterns you can do in a day. Don't forget to return any books you have checked out. This will be the last meeting for the year we will offer the Library. Hope to see you there! The winner of the October raffle book was Vicki Bertucci. Hope you enjoy the book, Vicki.

Philanthropic Quilts

Our committee continues to work hard at gathering, organizing and distributing quilts to the Carr Fire victims. At last count we have received around 900 quilts not only from our own guild members, but from individuals and quilts guilds across the United States. We are still collecting names and contact information, so please continue to provide that information to Dorinda so we can contact them to receive a quilt. This part of the process continues to be a challenge due to confidentiality laws.

Our next giveaway will be held at the Saint James Lutheran Church on October 20 from 10AM to 1PM and, like the first time, will be by-invitation only. We can use your help at this event as well. It is fairly painless – just help us deliver the quilts, arrange them on tables and have fun with helping people pick out their favorite quilt. It is a great chance to share your passion with others.

We also continue to need your assistance with this project, and there are many ways you can help us either by quilting the tops, completing a quilt top, binding and labels, donating fabric for backing, etc. Please contact us if you can spare a few hours to help us with this project. Thank you in advance for your help.

Finally, we want to share with you a letter we received from our pet beds donations. Just know your contributions do make a difference and are appreciated by others.

Dorinda, Patti, Paula, & Blossom

Dear Quilters,

I just wanted to thank you for your donation of various sizes of pet beds/fancy blankets/quilts you donated. We picked up a bag of them awhile back at Dana Park vet. I have to tell you these are fantastic, and our kitties love them very much. We took in several kitties from the fire, and they were happy to be given these to snuggle with. All of our cats and small dogs LOVE these beds/blankets so much, I can barely get them to get off them to clean!

I just wanted to let you know that your loving gift is much appreciated by all the animals and our volunteers. It is obvious how much love, compassion and time you put into every one of these.

We appreciate all your doing for us and our community. Thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Sincerely,
Renee/Volunteer

More Philanthropic News

We wish to thank all who have helped with the Carr Fire quilts and quilts for our local philanthropic donations. We received 55 quilts and 16 quilt tops at the October meeting. The Guild continues to receive generous donations of quilts and materials from other guilds, churches, businesses, and private individuals. The donations have been many, from one quilt to 50 at a time. Judy Bowman is busy sending a Thank You to each of them.

Our storage place, Redding Mini Storage, has donated a 10 x 10 unit to help with the temporary housing of quilts and materials. Cyndi of the Sewing Room has set aside time and space for sewing on labels and measuring the quilts. Thank you, Cyndi and Redding Mini Storage.

We are hosting another give away for fire victims this month. The September giveaway was well received.

This thank you was from an eight-year-old who is very happy with her quilt. [On the previous page.]

We continue to need help. Please ask Dorinda how you can help.
