From the President...

October - the month of pumpkins and trick-or-treaters. Then comes Thanksgiving and Christmas. Another year is almost gone. It seems that the older we get, the faster time flies by.

At the November meeting I will have the information on adopting the Head Start kids. We have singles and multiple family members to choose from. It's always fun to join other Guild members and adopt a family so that way each child receives equal gifts. Truly, if we don't adopt these children, some will not have Christmas. Bring your gifts to the December meeting all wrapped and contained in a bag or box.

Also, we will be taking donations for the Bella Vista Animal Sanctuary. Each member donating for that cause will be entered into a Thank You drawing.

Dorinda

From the Vice President...

November's program will be our Demonstration Night. We have several quilters lined up to show their skills in different techniques:

- Chris Hartman - Binding
- Rita Limmer - Korean Dress
- Ruth Marks - Accordion Half Square Triangle
- Carolyn Partridge - Curved Seams Without Pins or Clips
- Gayle Scott - English Paper Piecing
- Patti Aberg - Starch Applique
- Faye Leighton - Introduction to Art Quilting

This is the month that the original owners will get their Round Robin boxes back. Our hope is that everyone who participated will bring their finished tops or quilts to the December meeting for Show and Tell.

Karen

Committee News...

DOLLAR BLOCK

At the October Quilt Meeting we had 21 Ohio Star Blocks turned in, and the winner was Donna Jones! Congratulations Donna! Can hardly wait to see the wonderful purple quilt you will make with those pretty blocks. Thanks to all who participated.

We also sold 27 Sunflower Power Blocks designed by Vanessa Goertzen and used by permission. Lots of 2-1/2" squares and half square triangles make this delightful block. It is bright and happy! Sew it and bring it back for a chance to win them all!

In November we will have packets of a Basket Block. I am calling it "A Basket of Blessing for 2024." You will have time to make your own lovely Christmas gifts as this block will be returned at our January guild meeting. (We will not have a table or a drawing at the December meeting). We will just have fun together celebrating the joyous holidays!

Donna Pace

FAT QUARTERS

We had four winners in October: Barbara Hull (twice), Kathleen Hackney, and Patti Aberg. Alice Burris even sent five fat quarters but couldn't be there. What a dedicated Fat Quarterer!

November will be Fall colors—anything that makes you think of Fall.

Lynn Wilen

Jeanette Roderick, Asst.

NOMINATIONS

On page 7 of this newsletter is the voting ballot for the Executive Board for 2024. Please PRINT out this last page, CUT out the ballot, MARK your ballot and either send it to QSR, P.O. Box 492581, Redding 96049-2581 or bring it to the November 7th general meeting. Even though there is only one candidate for each office, please make your vote count and VOTE.

Thank you all for your cooperation through this process and especially thank you to all the candidates for saying YES and being willing to serve your Quilt Guild.

Linda Molter, Lynn Smith, Ruth Marks

PHILANTHROPIC

Once again, thanks to everyone who contributed this month to philanthropic quilts. We had seven completed quilts in October, as well as three quilts needing binding and four needing to be quilted. All of these kits were picked up by members to be completed sometime in the future.

Please be aware that if you take something to be completed, we do not care if it takes you a month, three months, or even longer. We are just so grateful for your time and effort.

I wish to give a special thank you to Carolyn Partridge who pieced, quilted, and bound three quilts on her own that she brought in at our October meeting. Carolyn, you are a super star!

In November we will have finished quilts you can add to your adopt-a-child gifts for Christmas. If you don't have time to make your own quilt, we've got you covered!

Thanks again for all you do.

Amy Seibert

PUBLICITY

Pioneer Quilters Guild Quilt Show and Sale, November 10 (10 am – 5 pm) and November 11 (10 am – 4 pm). Location: Mahany Fitness Center, 1545 Pleasant Grove Blvd., Roseville, CA. Admission $10.00 - good for both days.

Denise Richmond

WAYS & MEANS

Congratulations to our October winners: Barbara Hull and Sam Johnson

Betty DeWitt and Carol Lansdale

Quilt Show 2024

The Quilt Show has two new committee chairs. Charlene Peabody has volunteered to be Basket Chairperson and Sue Vanderwerf is Take Down Chairperson. Thank you, ladies!

The Quilt Show committee still needs volunteers for Drop Off, Publicity, Handmade Boutique, and Sponsor Co-Chair.

Please join us in planning the show. The next meeting is Thursday, November 16, 2023, at the Sewing Room.

Ruth Marks

2024 Quilt Show Chairperson

2024 Quilt Challenge

“Discover Turtle Bay”

The theme for the 2024 Quilt Challenge is Discover Turtle Bay. We had 25 quilters sign up during the October meeting. We will also have a table to sign up for this at our guild meetings for a few more months, so consider challenging yourself to make a quilt for the Challenge. The quilts will be due at the August 2024 meeting.

In addition, those who make a Challenge Quilt will have the option of having your quilt hang at the Turtle Bay Museum from October-December 2024. The cost is $5/quilt and each quilter is allowed to make up to two Challenge Quilts.

Cris Hartman/Patti Aberg

2024 Challenge Co-Chairs

We will have our last pass on the Round Robin at the November guild meeting. Please make sure you finish strong.

We will be revealing our quilts at the December Meeting. We don't expect you to have finished your quilt by then, but I'm sure there will be a few completed quilts; otherwise, you can just bring your quilt top. We hope all of you will be able to take part. I will be happy to show your quilt if you can't make it.

Gayle Scott
