From the President...

I am back from my vacation and saw some interesting history, but except for the last three days, it rained to some degree everyday and we did not find any fabric stores.

I am so looking forward to autumn with cooler weather and pretty leaves!

Next year there will be a new executive board with new ideas and projects. Also, there are still openings for some of the side tables and committee chairs. Please let me know if you are interested in heading up any of those vacancies. I will forward the information to the new president.

As I understand it, the quilt show committee is going great guns. Please think about volunteering to help with this project. Many hands make light work of any project.

See you at the September meeting.

Dorinda

From the Vice President...

Yvonne Phencie will be presenting a trunk show entitled, "I Love a Challenge."

This should be a wonderful opportunity for the folks participating in the Round Robin project, especially if you're "stuck" and just need an idea or two as to what to do next on the piece you've received. Even if you aren't participating in the Round Robin, I think we've all hit that "wall" at times, so you might take home some good ideas.

In October we'll be doing our guild Swap Meet/Boutique. This will be a good opportunity to go through your sewing space, clean out what you don't use anymore, and earn a few dollars to put toward your holiday projects. If you have any questions, please call me. By September 29, I also will need to know if you're participating so I can have a table available for you.

Fall is right around the corner, so let's get motivated to start stitching ourselves silly. I hope to see all of you at the September meeting!

Committee News...

DOLLAR BLOCK

Thank you to the 19 people who turned in their Granny Square blocks for the drawing at the August meeting. Lucinda Williams won the finished blocks, plus one kit. She should be able to make a nice Granny Square quilt. That is exciting!

We sold 29 of the Churn Dash block kits, twenty-five of which had the kittens in the center, labeled "Dashing Cats." Five kits had roses in the center to make up the 30 blocks that are normally available for purchase each month..

In September we will have an Ohio Star block kit available for purchase. This is a tried-and-true block that was used by pioneer women as a "Stash Buster."

Come to the September meeting with your finished block and be ready to purchase the next one. Thank you to all those faithful quilters who regularly participate in the Dollar Block. You are a delightful group. It makes my heart happy to see you each month.

Donna Pace

FAT QUARTERS

Winners for the bright fat quarters in August were Bessie Watt, Sam Johnson, and Lucinda Williams. Congratulations!

September will be batik fabrics.

Lynn Wilen/Jeanette Roderick, Asst.

LIBRARY

Each month we will have a dollar book sale. The selection will change, so stop by and take a look. We have already added and will continue adding books to the library that members can check out. There is something for everyone's interest. Feel free to make suggestions for future techniques or authors.

Suzy Jeffers won the August book drawing. The book, Barn Star Sampler by Shelley Cavanna, was popular. Thanks to everyone who purchased tickets.

The September book drawing is Quilts Made with Rulers. This book uses four basic rulers to make beautiful quilts with ease. The book includes 15 projects and features online tutorials for each ruler. Stop by the table and purchase tickets for this inspiring book.

Happy quilting!

Leah Grant and Ellie Sakellariou

NOMINATIONS

September is the last chance to put your name on the ballot for next year's Executive Board! If Lynn Smith, Ruth Marks, or I have talked to you about being on the board, please get back to us with your YES or No answer this month. There are also many committee chairs open as well. Please consider how you can help your guild with serving as chair, for one year, or any of the offices.

Thank you.

Linda Molter, Lynn Smith, Ruth Marks

PHILANTHROPIC

As usual, our wonderfully generous members turned in lots of quilts and quilt tops at our August meeting. Ten finished quilts were brought in along with 13 tops that need backing made, quilting done, and binding.

We also had a past member Joyce Payment pass away and her daughter donated 32 finished tops for us to complete. We appreciate her wonderful quilts and will get them completed as we are able.

Nine quilts for men were donated to Sierra Oaks assisted living facility for new residents.

Thank you to Irene Hunter for delivering them.

While much appreciation is due to all of you generous quilters, I find myself literally drowning in unfinished quilts. I would respectfully ask that you hold your finished tops for a couple of months and give me a chance to catch up. We have lots of quilts needing to be quilted, so please help us out if you are able.

I also could really use some help to put together top, back, and batting packages for our members to complete. If you have any free time to lend a hand, please call me.

Thank you all for spending your time on these quilts.

WORKSHOPS

Our last workshop of the year will be "Weaver Fever" taught by Yvonne Phenicie. The class will be on Wednesday, September 6, at the Blue Iris starting at 9 am. Cost is $45 for guild members. I have the information sheets and the link for the required pattern ($12).

We have plenty of spaces left. You can contact me if you want to sign up.

Gayle Scott

Our Round Robin has been moving along nicely. The exchange at the meeting went very well. I want to thank you all for being ready. So from now on we will continue exchanging before the meeting.

Keep creating.

Gayle and Karen

Quilt Show 2024

Our 2024 quilt show planning is underway. We have had a good response from vendors, and we have a couple of sponsors.

The hanging of our quilts on the Sundial Bridge on Monday, August 5, 2023, was a huge success. We hung 69 quilts that covered most of the 700-foot span of the Sundial Bridge. Twenty-eight members and several husbands participated, and it was a blast. Channel 7 gave us some time on their news broadcast. Thank you, Cris Hartman.

The next Quilt Show Committee meeting is Tuesday, September 5, 2023, at The Sewing Room. We still have areas needing leadership, so come join us and see how you can be involved.

BE IN THE KNOW ABOUT THE SHOW.
