D'Anne Andrews

From the President...

Have we all moved on to Crazy Quilting by now? We are all affected (mentally, if not physically) by the Covid-19 world-wide pandemic, protests, politics, election year, fires, and smoke. I know that I'm feeling like a Crazy Quilter. I haven't had as much time as I would like to sew. I have, however, found finished projects that just needed backing so now they are being quilted.

As a guild, we have some GREAT news. Cris Hartman and Rose Leonard have volunteered to handle Philanthropic for the time being related to the Zogg fire. You will definitely be hearing more from them as we are all encouraged to do what we can to provide quilts for those in need.

More good news...

- ◆ We have a beautiful Opportunity Quilt for next year created and donated by Karen Ottoboni and Pauline Short. It will be sent off to be quilted soon.
- ◆ Dorinda Goff and Cyndi Piearcy are working on a plan to get and distribute the names of children who could really use gifts this Christmas. It is nice to know that we will continue this tradition. Please read the newsletter for more details.

Also, watch your e-mails for more information which we will send out as it is available. I say "we"--actually D'Anne Andrews is doing great work with the newsletter and the e-mail Blasts that she sends out.

Thank you to all of you in our guild who have been working to keep the guild going, supporting others, and figuring out our next steps during these very unusual times. Feel free to contact me or any of your other officers with questions or comments. We might not be meeting physically, but that does not stop us from connecting with each other.

Louise

From the Vice President...

Hello everyone. It's been an interesting year hasn't it? I hope this finds you and your loved ones happy and healthy.

Looking outside this morning at the beautiful blue sky reminds me of how fortunate I am. Fortunate to live in such a wonderful place and to know people like all of you. Hopefully, this COVID thing will be behind us soon so we can all gather in friendship and quilting fun.

As you all know, we will not be able to meet through at least the end of 2020. I will work on next year's speakers with great enthusiasm in anticipation of being able to gather together at some point.

Until we meet again,

Tammie

As we all try to move forward with our lives, these past months have taught us not to expect an event to happen but to hope the event will happen. Quilt Bash for 2021 is in this position. I'm sad to report the Quilters' Sew-Ciety of Redding, Inc. will have to cancel this event.

The dates of our Quilt Bash has Simpson University in the midst of major repairs throughout the buildings we would be using as well as the contract for the food service people not being effective. Trying other locations doesn't work for various reasons.

We know everyone will miss our event as much as we will. Please watch the website and our Facebook page for more details as 2023 rolls around.

Linda Ballard, Chairman

Zogg Fire Quilt Drive!!!

As you already know, our area recently suffered another devastating fire that destroyed over 85 homes in the Igo-Ono area southwest of Redding. We (Cris Hartman and Rose Leonard) have volunteered to head up another quilt drive for residents who lost their homes in the Zogg Fire through our Philanthropic Committee. We are only able to serve until the beginning of March, so that makes our push to get quilts to the fire victims even more urgent.

We are asking each of you to consider making at least one quilt in the next couple of months to give to someone in need. Our goal is to have the first quilt giveaway in early December, if possible. This means a BIG push to get quilts made rather quickly. Our President Louise Wilson, Cris Hartman, and Cyndi Percy at The Sewing Room both have some fabric cut up into quilt kits if you would like to pick one up to work on. Please contact them for a quilt kit. We can make more if necessary. We also have a lot of extra fabric that can be cut and sewn into quilt backs if you need one for a quilt top you have made.

We have changed how we are handling this, and all written communication can be sent to a new email address we set up that can be accessed by both of the coordinators. It is qsr.wecarequilts@gmail.com. While you can call Cris Hartman or Rose Leonard if you have questions, we encourage you to email us at the above address.

We know some of you long- and mid-arm quilters will be busy with holiday quilts at this time of year but are asking you to volunteer to quilt some quilts for us. If you are willing to do that, please email us and let us know. We also know some of you like to do binding. Again, please email us and volunteer so we know who we can take quilts to for binding. If you are part of a quilt group (either in person or on-line) please encourage other quilters to help us.

While quilts of any size are appreciated, we would encourage you to consider making at least twin to queen size quilts since we still have some smaller lap-sized quilts left over from our Carr Fire quilt drive. Children's quilts and pillowcases will also be appreciated, and we are working to get an idea of how many kids were affected by the fire. If you have made a quilt or two during this pandemic, consider donating it to this cause! If you can quilt your quilt yourself, that would also be a big help.

If you know anyone who lost their home, please email us at the qsr.wecarequilts@gmail.com and provide their contact information (or encourage them to contact us directly).

We know the quilters in our guild have big hearts and are generous with their time and material, so please get sewing and let Cris and Rose know when you have a quilt done. Quilt tops, pillowcases, or quilts can be dropped off at four locations:

We are still collecting old linens for the Bella Vista Animal Sanctuary. They can use any of your old linens such as towels, sheets, and throw rugs in useable condition. Pet beds are also welcome. Be sure that everything is clean.

In December, we are planning a pet food drive and will let you know what things are on their wish list.

Also, we are hoping to work with Head Start to find some way to have a Giving Tree again this year. Watch your e-mails for more information which we will send out as it is available.

Dorinda and Blossom

America is not a blanket—one piece of unbroken cloth, the same size, the same color, the same texture.

America is more like a quilt—many pieces, many sizes, all woven and held together by a common thread.
