Category Definitions

A quilt must be at least three layers - backing, filler and top - held together primarily with stitching through all layers and bound. In the art and dimensional categories, entries must consist of a least two layers with sewing, stitching, tying or fastening through the two layers.

1. Perimeter: To determine the perimeter size of the quilt, add the length plus the width then multiply by 2.
2. Art Quilt: The work must be predominantly fabric or fabric like material. The top layer may be created by any combination of the following techniques:
  - a. Applique: Hand, machine, raw edge, turned under, fusible, reverse.
  - b. Color Application: Hand-dying, tie dying, stamping, fabric painting.
  - c. Embellishing: Beading, buttons, cording, yarn, hand-stitching, paper. No glitter allowed.
  - d. Embroidery: Hand, machine, free-standing.
  - e. Machine Stitches: Decorative, faux hand-quilt, zigzag, satin stitch, twin needles.
  - f. Piecing: Straight, curved, strip.
  - g. Quilting: Hand, domestic, long arm, free motion.
  - h. Thread: Thread painting, free motion embroidery, free motion quilting, bobbin-work, couching.
  - i. Miscellaneous: Needle felting, photo transfers, foiling, heat gun distressed fabric, Broderie Perse.
3. Art Quilt – Original Design: Original design.
4. Art Quilt – Non-Original Design: Uses a pattern for the entire quilt or elements of the quilt.
5. Modern Quilts: Modern quilts are functional and inspired by modern design. Characteristics include, but are not limited to: geometric designs, the use of bold colors and prints, high contrast and graphic areas of solid color, improvisational piecing, minimalism, expansive negative space, and alternate grid work.
6. Dimensional Work: Garments, totes, purses, dolls, etc.
7. Machine Embroidered: Any size, 75% or more embroidered
8. Hand Embroidered: Any size, 25% or more embroidered

Additional Guidelines

1. Two color photographs must be included with the registration form. These pictures may be printed on paper.
2. Entries must have a 4" sleeve sewn across the back for hanging.
3. Entries must have an identification label. In addition, baste the paper Article Label from the registration form to the lower right-hand corner of the back.
4. Quilts previously entered in a Quilters' Sew-ciety quilt show are not eligible. The Quilters' Sew-ciety reserves the right to limit the number of entries and their categories.
5. Final placement of entries in a category will be determined by the Quilt Show Chair, Registration Chair, and/or the Judge.
6. Registration may be completed online; however, registration will not be complete until the fee is received.
7. You will be given a receipt at Drop Off that will be your claim check at Pick Up approximately 1 hour after the quilt show closes.
