From the President…

Happy February!

We navigated through our first month together in the Guild general & board meetings. The Left-Right Jellyroll Strip game had me engaged to the point I didn't announce an official break! Oops! Hence, the sign-up sheets for the Quilt Show positions were a bit empty. Be ready this month to hold your positions serving on the various teams. Choose your time slots and days so you don't miss any of the May memory-making fun!

I am pleased to announce the board approved these new committee chair appointments: Ways and Means—Cherry McCabe, Kim Cash, Jenny Webb and Opportunity Quilt—Lynn Smith and Janie Dillion. Congratulations, ladies!

We are still looking for Education chair and co-chairs. If you would like to help the Education chair in any capacity, please text or email me. Many hands make for light work!

I am typing this letter after listening to a two-hour Zoom meeting hosted by NCQC titled, "January Jumpstart: Growing and Retaining Your Guild's Members." I would like to share some takeaway snapshots:

#1. Interest focused friendship groups strengthen your guild. Ladies who have led small gatherings in various locations, encouraging and educating the quilters of our region, THANK YOU! These gatherings are not exclusive to the guild, giving us greater social opportunities. Leaders emerge from small groups of this nature.

#2. Be your best self at all times. Genuine excitement and engagement are contagious! Put a smile on your face, let laughter loose, especially when sharing QSR with your friends and neighbors. Which segways into…

#3. Attraction over Promotion. Energetic joy attracts participation over promoting with informational dictation. Personal touches are remembered more than paid announcements. With smiling lips and twinkling eyes, place a "Be My Guest" card in someone's hand. You will have a home run!

#4 Education projects bring in the junior members and their parents. Giving Education is a core value in our statement of purpose. It is time to figure out how to resurrect Education.

#5 The Enemy of Growth: "This is what we've always done before." Times are a changing… please join me and think on these things.

I am going to the Workshop on February 4 taught by Sandra Bruce. Check out her website at sandrabruce.com. Sandra has a technique called Material Matrix. I am learning something new! Join me; spots are still available!

Happy Quilting!

Lucinda

From the Vice President…

The speaker for the February meeting will be Sandra Bruce from Grass Valley. Her lecture is "S'more Smorgasbord" and will include a trunk show. Sandra will have her book, polymer buttons, and earrings for sale.

We will also celebrate "Friendship" at this meeting and ask you to bring your favorite finger food which we will enjoy during a short break. Feel free to bring your own beverage.

Looking ahead, in March the meeting lecture will be with Arlene Arnold speaking about the history of quilting. In April, our program will be a presentation by Halli Keller, featured quilter for our 2026 Quilt Show.

I'm looking forward to seeing you next month!

Charlene

January Meeting—Fun and Friendship

Committee Reports…

Community Quilts

The large quilt for the airport will be provided by Beula Alioto for February.

There are no quilts signed up for February or March for the Ombudsman Office. These quilts cannot be more than 56"x66". If anyone has one for me to hang, please contact me.

Dorothy

Corresponding Secretary

If you know of any member who is ill or just needs a little sunshine, please let me know.

Ruth

Dollar Block (aka $2 Block)

The January meeting went nicely.

The Dollar Block committee notified the Guild regarding the price increase (to $2) which will allow us to purchase good quality fabrics for the kits. We also notified members about the additional drawing to be held at the end of the year which will be for the twelve monthly samples sewn by the chairs. The blocks for the balance of the year will all be 12-inch finished size blocks so they will make a completed quilt for that end-of-the-year drawing.

2026 Appointed Committee Chairs

Community Quilts—Dorothy Goss (Interim)

Correspondence Secretary—Ruth Marks

Digital Media (website, Facebook, Instagram)—Sue Vanderwerf

Dollar Block—Chris Smith and Jennie Nolasco

Education—TBD

Fat Quarters —Marie Chestnut

Historian—Sue Vanderwerf

Library—Leah Grant and Gayle Hastings

Opportunity Quilt—Lynn Smith and Janie Dillion

Philanthropic—Amy Seibert

Property Manager—Kathy Saukko

Quilt Guilds of the North Quarter—Linda Molter

Shasta District Fair—Lynn Smith

Special Projects—Margaret Ward

Ways & Means—Cherry McCabe, Kim Cash, and Jenny Webb

The November blocks, called "Popping Curves," were collected at the meeting, and Sharon Yonehara was our winner. She walked away with 18 completed blocks!

The January "My Valentine" blocks were all sold out.

Thanks to all who have participated and hope more will join in on the fun. See you in February.

Chris and Jennie

Fat Quarters

January 6th was a good start for the new year. We had 24 red, white, and pink fat quarters turned in. Winners Cherry Mc Cabe and Alice Burris each won 12.

Next month, February 3rd, the color will be greens—all shades for St. Patrick's day.

See you all next month.

Marie

Historian

Quilt Guild Index Project: I need your help in gathering historical information. Do any of you have pictures of Opportunity Quilts? I have pictures of the following Opportunity Quilts:

2010	2019	2024
2012	2020	2025
2014	2023	2026
2016

Non-Profit Status: Our Guild's application to the IRS to become a 501(c)3 has been submitted. We should hear back within six months. Keep your fingers crossed!

Sue

Library

February may be the shortest month of the year, but it's a wonderful time to find a little extra inspiration—and the guild library is ready to help spark your next project.

As winter stitching continues, many members are settling in with library favorites, revisiting trusted techniques, and exploring new ideas for spring quilts just beginning to take shape. Whether you're working on finishing a long-awaited UFO, planning a gift, or simply enjoying some quiet quilting time, the library offers a cozy place to browse and borrow.

Thank you to everyone who continues to support the library by checking out books, returning them promptly, and sharing thoughtful suggestions. Your participation helps keep the collection relevant, well-used, and enjoyable for all members.

We are preparing our list of new books to purchase, so if there's a book you've loved or a topic you'd like to see added in the coming months, please let us know—we truly value your recommendations as we plan future additions.

Happy quilting,

Leah and Gayle

Opportunity Quilt

Please come visit our Opportunity Quilt table at the general meetings to get a closeup view of the 2026 Opportunity Quilt. This beautiful blue and white quilt was pieced and quilted by member Carolyn Partridge.

Tickets are $1 per ticket or $5 for TEN tickets (this is the best deal ever!), so please come by and buy some tickets at the next meeting. You know you want to own this quilt!!

Our Opportunity Quilt will be travelling to various guilds and events this year. If you are interested in visiting new places and meeting new friends, reach out to me or to Janie Dillion. And remember that we will need your help selling tickets at the Shasta District Fair in June, so while you are buying tickets you can sign up! Thanks for your support!

Lynn Smith

Philanthropic

Welcome to the new year! I am excited about our philanthropic efforts this year.

As I mentioned at our January meeting, we will be focusing on our philanthropic UFOs this year.

We will have a sew-in at The Sewing Room on February 7 from 10 am -2 pm. Bring your sewing machine and notions, along with rotary cutters and rulers, as we will work on making backs for the many tops we have waiting to be quilted. Tops will be ready along with massive amounts of backing fabrics so we can get these out to our members who can quilt them for us. Please bring your lunch; I will provide a few snacks as well.

Thank you all for the many finished quilts we received at the January meeting, and a special thanks to those who took kits home to be quilted. We are blessed to have so many talented and generous members!

Amy

Quilt Guilds of the North Quarter

The first quarterly meeting is January 31, 2026, in Orland hosted by the Orland Quilters Guild. The program is “Tips & Tricks” of how to motivate all of us to finish UFO’s. Lunch is a $10 hot potato bar and cookies.

If you have an interest in attending, please contact me before January 24 to make the reservation.

Linda

Shasta District Fair

The 2026 Shasta District Fair will be held June 17 through 21 at the fairgrounds in Anderson. The deadline to submit quilt entries is May 22. Entries can be made either online or in person at the Shasta District Fair office at 1890 Briggs St, Anderson, CA.

I will be asking for sign-ups to help with Judging (June 15), Setup (June 16), and Take down (June 22) at the March and April meetings, so please pencil in these dates. I will also be asking for sign-ups to sell Opportunity Quilt tickets during the Fair (June 17 - 21). Thank you in advance for your help and support!!

Lynn

Ways & Means

We are excited to be continuing the good work of the Ways & Means Committee!

In addition to fabric, patterns, notions, and fun themed items, several beautiful quilt kits have been donated for future raffle baskets this year. Don't forget to bring your dollars for tickets to win!

Also, if you have any extra baskets or items that you'd like to donate for future raffles, please feel free to bring them to us at the next meeting or call/text Cherry for pickup. Thank you!

Cherry, Jenny, and Kim

Workshops

On February 4 we have Sandra Bruce from Grass Valley to present her workshop entitled "Scrap Vortex." In this workshop you will bring your special scraps you can't bear to get rid of to use and share with others. She will demo different techniques to use, such as curved piecing, wonky log cabin, and fussy cutting to make great looking blocks. You can make your quilt any size or color combo.

There's plenty of spots still open. It will be at Hokema's on Bechelli from 9:30 – 4:00 pm. Bring your own lunch.

Please call me to sign up soon so you can get your supply list.

Cost is $45.00.

2026 Quilt Show

The Quilt Show committee members met at my home on January 3rd and there was great enthusiasm for getting the plans underway for a great Quilt Show. Committee chairs were introduced to you at January's Guild meeting and now we are asking for your help to make it happen. Committee Chairs have described below what their duties involve so you can choose where to volunteer. Sign up sheets will be at the Quilt Show side table. Please help by getting involved in your quilt guild and find out how much fun it can be.

Quilt Registration

Entry forms for your quilts are due no later than March 27. Entries must include a 3x5 photo (can be computer printed) and fee.

Forms have been sent out in a recent "Blast" and are also available to download from our website, quilterssewciety.org (select "Events" tab and "Quilt Show"). For those who do not have access via computer, printed forms are available at the Quilt Show table at the next two general guild meetings, or perhaps a friend can download the form for you.

If you download the .pdf version of the form, you have the option to fill it in by clicking on the "T" (text) tab at the upper left corner of the document. This will enable you to type in fields that are to be included in all the forms you submit. You will then only have to type in fields that are specific to each quilt (i.e., title, dimensions, description, etc.)

You may also email me your form and .pdf version of your quilt photo and I will print these out for you; however, your entry is NOT complete until I also receive your entry fee.

Remember that we are limiting quilt entries to the first 300 received due to limited space in the exhibit hall. Don't delay!!

Quilt Challenge

Cris Hartman will be out after January due to back surgery, but reports that sign-ups for Challenge Quilts were closed at the January meeting.

We encourage everyone to work on their quilts which will be due at the March guild meeting. Custom fabric labels will be distributed at the February meeting. If you will not be there, please call co-chair Patti Aberg.

If you have lost your paperwork, please contact Patti or Cris to obtain an electronic version.

We are looking forward to seeing what creative work you come up with! Remember, we will be voting on these at the April guild meeting. If you have any questions, please call us.

Judging

If you are interested in helping, there are two openings for scribes for the Judge (for quilts entered for judging) on Tuesday, April 28, 1-4 pm, at The Sewing Room.

There are also six openings for quilt handlers for the Judge (for quilt show quilts) on Tuesday, April 28:

8:00 am – Noon
1:00 pm – 4 pm

Raffle Baskets

We will start collecting things for the raffle baskets for the quilt show at the February Guild meeting. Why not get your quilting buddies together and create a raffle basket? We can put the baskets together for you if you'd like, you can just drop off the goodies!

Marci Cohen

Vendors

We need enthusiastic helpers for vendor hosting and hall setup. Tasks include taping and numbering booth spaces, welcoming vendors, and providing assistance during the show. After the event, we'll need help with clean-up and breakdown.

Your support ensures a smooth and enjoyable experience for vendors and attendees alike.

Lynda Blais

Vendor Housing

Help Welcome Our Quilt Show Vendors!

We're looking for guild members who can offer housing for one or two vendors attending the 25th Biennial Quilt Show in May 2026. This is a wonderful way to support our event and connect with fellow quilting enthusiasts!

Accommodations would be for 1–2 people. More details will be provided as we learn who needs assistance and what options are available.

If you're able to provide a simple breakfast and coffee, that would be amazing—but it's not required.

White Gloves

White Gloves is looking for volunteers for May 1st and a few shifts on May 2nd. This is your opportunity to take full advantage of viewing the quilts with gloves. Thank-you to all who have signed up.

Charlene Peabody

Set Up

Each quilt has a place, and our job is to get the quilts to that rack and then hang them all.

We would love to have the help of at least 20 quilters to hang and straighten the quilts.

This year it would be good for some of you to be involved ahead of time to go over the layout and help direct the flow of quilts. I would love to have 4 people who would do that.

It is amazing to see that big old building converted into a showcase in less than a day. Plan on being a part of the transformation!

Take Down

Help Wanted—Inquire Within

It is that time of year where I get to beg and plead for help to take down the quilt show. Please consider helping as it is really pretty easy. Mostly it consists of folding quilts and arranging them alphabetically by name. Secondly, we will check names off the list and hand quilts back to their owner. Lastly, and probably the least, it consists of carrying and stacking our equipment. Nothing weighs more than five pounds.

Many hands make light work. Only one shift is necessary—Saturday, May 2, at the close of the Quilt Show.

Lynn Prather

Bed Turning

This list of quilt styles is for the bed turning event at our quilt show in May. There will be one bed turning held each day of the show. If you have a quilt that was made in any of these decades and you're willing to loan it to me for the bed turning, please email me your name, phone number, your quilt's story, and a photo (or more) of your quilt. I will choose a quilt for each decade and let you know if yours has been selected for Friday or Saturday.

Drop off will be at the April guild meeting and pick up at the end of the show or the May meeting. If you have any questions or need to make special arrangements, please let me know.

Decades of quiltmaking styles:

2020s – Modern, medallion

2010s – hand dyes, stenciled, hand painted, Gees Bend style, hot fix crystal quilts

2000s – Kaffe Fassett, rainbow colors, machine embroidery, Millenium - Y2K 2000 charms pieced quilts, Japanese fabrics

1990s - charm, Baltimore Album, watercolor, mock hand applique, art quilts, batiks

1980s – trip around the world, Amish, Jinny Beyer prints and stripes, dusty colors, civil war reproductions, thirties reproductions

1970s – Bicentennial, small calicos, poly/cottons, plaids, abstract designs

2026 ROUND ROBIN

A Round Robin is a wonderful opportunity to foster some collaborated creativity for all who participate. The end results are stunning examples of the dedication and talent that you as a quilter encompasses in your daily quilting lives. Consider participating this year in one of two round robins, the Row Robin and the Inside-Out Robin.

The Row Robin will feature a more traditional feel of quilts, with 42 ½" unfinished rows, side-to-side. The Inside-Out Robin will feature a more artistic approach, with one border placed straight through the middle and not along an outside edge. This is not a project for beginners. You should be a strong confident beginner with several quilts behind you.

QUESTIONS: TEXT or call MARGARET WARD. Text your name and what your question is. Please do not email me; this is the least way I respond. (if I do).

BASIC GUIDELINES TO THE WAY THIS WORKS:

- Sign up by the March 3rd (or Feb. 3rd) meeting.
- Pick up your draw string bag, paperwork, and assigned alphabet letter or number.
- This is a collaborative project with seven persons working on each project, one month at a time.
- First month starts at the April 7th meeting.
- The last month ends at the November 3rd meeting when each participant gets their project back.
- These will be passed each month until each project has had all 7 participants working on them.
- The "project start" is the owner/maker of the row or inside-out robin.
- It will be passed each month for 6 months.
- On the 7th month (Nov.) it will come back.
- Choose to work on the ROW or INSIDE-OUT robin-- Or both.
- Each participant must complete their "project start" and place it in the bag with their filled-out paperwork and the number or alphabet letter attached to the outside of the bag near the top.
- Please drop it off on the "SPECIAL PROJECTS" table BEFORE the start of the meeting in the back of the room near the Opportunity Quilt.
- Please prepare to pick up the next project (someone else's) DURING the meeting break.

ROW ROBIN:

- Each row MUST be 42 ½" wide—side-to-side.
- There is no minimum height requirement but a good rule of thumb is not less than 4" or more than 9"
- There will be sample sizes at the meeting to help with the math.
- Please DO NOT stick narrow strips at the ends if your row falls short of 42 ½".
- Please do not let your row fall short of 42 ½". The row should have accuracy.
- Original owner: please attach your name to the front of your row so others have a guide to follow.
- Others may—if they choose—to attach their names.
- Please follow the written guidelines of the original owner's paperwork.
- Please sign your name to the paperwork. Quilters like this for labels on the back.

INSIDE-OUT ROBIN:

- Start with one fat quarter. Cut off selvages.
- Slice through the center—one way only so there are TWO HALVES. Halves do not need to be equal.
- Design a pieced border and place in the center—attaching the TWO HALVES to the border.
- Place in the bag with paperwork. Do not attach your name to this project.
- The second person will slice through this project the opposite direction—design and piece a border—and put it back together.
- The third person...and so on until completion...will each slice through the project, one direction, then the other, until there are 7 internal borders inside the quilt.
- Busy fabric is not a border. It MUST be a pieced border.
- Please follow the guidelines set by the original owner.
- Please sign your name to the paperwork as one who worked on this project.
- NO WONKY quilts. They MUST be squared or rectangle.

QUILT JUDGE TRAINING

February 24 - 25, 2026

Vacaville, CA

The course will be an intensive two-day training covering all aspects of quilt judging, including extensive hands-on practice. It is for individuals who intend to become active quilt judges. The course would also be beneficial for current quilt judges who wish to further their knowledge of current best practice and hone their skills.

Experience in the judging arena is crucial in preparing for this course. Participants are encouraged to seek opportunities to participate in the judging process: planning, scribing, assisting, observing and shadowing. Candidates should be able to endure the physical rigors of full-day judging with minimal breaks.

Instructors are accomplished quilters and trained/experienced judges: Julie Curry, Diana Muenzler, and Kitty Oliver.

Our mission is to provide training in quilt evaluation that is fair, thorough, and encouraging.

Registration will open in early November. The cost is $400, which does not include meals or lodging. For information, visit our website: https://quiltjudgetraining.com or contact us at: quiltjudgetrain@gmail.com
