From the President…

Lucinda is on vacation! We hope she's having a fun, safe trip and look forward to her return soon.

From the Vice President…

Let's Celebrate Our Independence Day In Style

Just like the colorful scrapes of fabric we piece together, our guild thrives because of the unique skills and energy every member brings. Let's take this month to celebrate our shared passions, our finished projects, and the friendships we've stitched together.

For our July meeting, we will be having a summer celebration. We'll have catered sandwiches and Charlene's secret lemonade, iced tea, and water. I'm asking for members with last name initial (A-M) bring a dessert and (N-Z) bring a side dish.

Come dressed in your best patriotic attire. Members will vote on their favorite outfit, and we will have a special prize for best dressed.

We'll also be having our annual rummage sale. If you would like to reserve a table, just let me know by July 2nd. (Fuzzykittys@gmail.com)

Please bring your red, white, and blue quilts to share and, of course, any new project you want to share.

Don't forget to bring at least one fat quarter. We will have some fun activities planned for them.

We won't be having a free table this month. Please save it for August meeting or reserve a table to sell it.

Lastly, I would appreciate a couple of extra hands to help set up for this social. If you would like to help, let me know. It will be much appreciated.

Charlene

Committee Reports…

Community Quilts

We have another location for Community Quilts! The Shasta County Office of Education will be able to display lap or large wall-sized quilts approximately 40-50" wide by no longer than 65" in length in the hallway of their office. I put up a quilt yesterday for the next month.

Jennie Nolasco's quilt will be displayed at the Redding Airport and Dorothy Goss has her quilt at the Ombudsman's Office.

If anyone has recommendations for locations where quilts can be safely displayed for the public to see, please let me know. I'll be happy to check it out.

Cris

Corresponding Secretary

If you know of any member who is ill or just needs a little sunshine, please let me know.

Ruth

Dollar Block (aka $2 Dollar block)

At the June meeting, 16 "All Star" blocks were collected of the 30 that were sold. They were won by Sharon Yonehara. We're sure she has something special in mind for them.

The new blocks were called "Morning Star." There were only 24 of the 35 kits made sold.

Pictures of the blocks have been provided for the last couple of months and that makes the process much easier. Thanks to all who have participated and we hope more will join in on the fun.

Next month we will likely make a few less kits, but two of the leftovers from some of the previous months were sold at the Saturday "Fun Day."

Chris and Jennie

Fat Quarters

Unexcitingly, only 18 fat quarters were submitted at the last meeting and seven of those were from the free table! Two groups of red, white, and blue fabrics were won by Sylvia Langford and Nancy Finck. In May, Carla Ferrier and Lisa Ponce each won the fat quarter drawing.

For July, we will have a mystery fat quarter prize and request every member to bring ANY and as many fat quarters you wish.

Suzy

Library

Congratulations to Dorothy Goss, winner of our June library drawing book, Vintage Vibe Quilts and Projects by Louise Papas!

Thank you to everyone who stopped by the library, purchased drawing tickets, checked out books, and supported this valuable guild resource. The library continues to be a wonderful place to discover new techniques, find inspiration, and explore quilting ideas.

LIbrary, con't

Due to the Guild rummage sale and the fact that the library staff is traveling to Sisters, Or, for the quilt show and classes, there will not be a library set up at the July meeting. You can return the currently checked-out books at the August meeting.

Happy quilting!

Leah and Gayle

Philanthropic

Welcome to warmer (even hot) weather. This is a great time to stay indoors and quilt your heart out!

As usual, your generosity was on full display at our June meeting. We received eight lap quilts, four twin quilts, and one double quilt. Hats off to you for all you do to spread quilted love in our community!

As you know, the Saturday Fun Day has been moved to the 27th at Shasta College from 9 am – 4 pm. I will be there with a big supply of pre-cut quilt blocks you can help me make for some more fun twin quilts for kids. Bring your sewing machine and notions, and we will have a great time. See you there.

Workshops

There is no July workshop on the calendar, but our August workshop on Saturday, August 8, is Laura Heine's "Collage Patterns," being taught by Carol Martin, owner of the Quilt Corral in Willows. Choose your own pattern and fabrics, sign up, and pick up your supply list at the July and August guild general meetings. It will be held at The Sewing Room, 9 am-3 pm. Workshop fee is $45/member. Pack your lunch and enjoy the day.

August Workshop

Our September workshop is "Warp Speed," where you can learn how to change the dimensions of your favorite quilt block. The guest teacher is Dana Jones coming from Colorado. The class will be at the Blue Iris in Palo Cedro, 9 am-3 pm on Wednesday, September

Saturday Fun Day News

Our first Saturday Fun Day was a wonderful success! Thirty members joined us for a day of sewing, visiting, laughter, and making new quilting friends. The feedback has been overwhelmingly positive, and we're excited to continue offering these events.

Important date change: Due to a scheduled PG&E power outage at Shasta College, our June Fun Day has been moved from June 20 to Saturday, June 27.

A special thank you to Cyndi Piearcy and The Sewing Room for sponsoring the June Fun Day. Their support helps make these events possible.

We hope you'll join us on June 27 for another fun day of quilting and friendship!

Partnerships

Last month, two members offered to partner and sponsor an upcoming Saturday Fun Day. If you are interested in participating and financially supporting a future event, let me know. I also encourage you to reach out to businesses and organizations you know to see if they would like to participate as sponsors as well. The more sponsors we have, the better.

Development Committee Update

Thank you to the members who submitted ideas and suggestions for improving our guild. While we received only a few submissions, they provided some great starting points for discussion.

The Development Committee will meet in June to review suggestions and ideas from committee members. We will research the most promising concepts and determine which may be worth developing into future proposals for the guild.

Our goal is simple: To continue finding ways to strengthen our quilting community and enhance the member experience.

If you want to see my Bed Turning presentation at the Redding quilt show on May 1-2, my friend Vicki did a video of the Bed Turning featuring 15 quilts on Friday, May 1st. This video was shared on Facebook, but the link should work for general access.

For those who enjoyed seeing the famous signature quilt in this video, another of the three famous signature quilts was filmed for Northstate Quilts back in 2000. The quilt was shown in North State Quilts 2006, the last video KIXE made with clips from the 1999, 2000, and 2001 Northstate Quilts programs. June Member Spotlight on Gaylene Pinnell

Gaylene is a new member in the Guild. She started as a sewist and quilter 28 years ago by taking a class at Shasta College when her daughters were newborns. She enjoys making quilts for her four grandchildren, a 2½-year-old, 1-year-old twins, and a 2-month-old grandson.

She enjoys every aspect of quilting while sewing in a reclaimed bedroom now that her girls have moved into their own homes. Fun with fabric selection and learning new things keep her motivated.

Gaylene shared two quilts made for her grandchildren. Both featured lovely designs—one with whisper colors, cunning little stars centered by appliqued hearts, and pinstriped binding; the other with darling dinosaurs in teal, green, and mustard. Baker, the dino quilt owner, roars when he wants his quilt, and Gaylene was going to have to rush it back to him after the meeting because it is his sleep lovey. Gaylene hand quilted these special pieces.

When not creating and assisting her daughters with the kids, Gaylene is a hard-working dental hygienist.

Thank you, Gaylene, for sharing your beautiful work with us. Welcome to the guild!
